JANUARY AND JUNE

Mrs. Stella Hunt and Mr. C.T. Williams Joined in Wedlock
WIFE DISPARITY OF AGES

Was No Hindrance to the Course of True Love

Mr. E.T. Williams, aged 80 years and Mrs. Stella Hunt aged 22, were united in marriage at the courthouse this morning by Judge Yeager. Both of the contracting parties live in the Thornberry neighborhood. Mrs. Hunt has two small children. Mr. Williams first wife died several years ago, and though he had plenty of the world's goods, there was that aching void in his heart that only the company and comfort of a true wife can remove. His young wife will be an eternal source of comfort to him and will be well cared for lives and amply provided for when he shall pass away.

They took dinner at the Dennison Hotel today and start this evening on a wedding tour of the Northern States. They will first go to Griggsville, Ill., and on their return will visit St. Louis and other prominent points.

They will reside in the Thornberry neighborhood after their return from the North.
