MRS. ADELIN RUCKS MARRIED TO NEPHEW

The clipping below, from Yesterday's Fort Worth Record, will be of interest to Wichita people, among whom Mrs. Rucks is very well known. Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger are expected to arrive here within the next day or two to make this city their home. The clipping follows:

Pittsfield, Mass. Aug. 31 - (Special) Mrs. Adeline Rucks of Wichita Falls, Texas, came to Massachusetts to marry her nephew, Eli Ballinger. She is 50 years old, twice a widow, wealthy and weighs 250 pounds, while he tips the scales at 118. Notwithstanding that it is against the state law for such near kinsfolk as nephew and aunt to marry Mrs. Rucks and her nephew procured a license. Then they sought out Rev. J.M. Hamilton, a Methodist minister, who performed the ceremony. Happy as could be, they departed for Texas.

Double Wedding

Two Popular Young Ladies Become Brides Today

At 1:00 o'clock today at the First Presbyterian church, two of Wichita's most popular young ladies entered the ranks of matrons, a beautiful double ceremony being formed. William Carey Lowry and Miss Maud Holley Skinner, and Lillard Abbott Wallace and Miss Vallie Skinner were the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McKee.

Miss Maud Skinner was attended by her sister, Miss Bonnie Skinner, and Miss Vallie Skinner was attended by Miss Lena Matlock. Lamar Fain attended Mr. Wallace as best man and Mr. Lowry was attended by R.T. Fowler of Fort Worth. D.D. Darling of Fort Worth and Charlton Durland officiated as ushers. Just before the entrance of the bridal parties, Mrs. Perry and J.R. Bradley sang a duet, "I Love You." The wedding march was rendered by Prof. Katz and orchestra.

The brides were attired in handsome traveling suits and the church was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lowry left for points north, but will return shortly to make this city their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will also make Wichita Falls their residence.

Holland - Prothro

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred Thursday afternoon, October 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Holland, when their daughter, Miss Ruby Mamie Holland, was given in marriage to James Nelson Prothro.

The bride was gowned in a gray traveling suit and carried a bouquet of Mareschiel Neil roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S.M. Tenny of the Presbyterian church, and a large number of friends and relatives of both parties were present. There were many handsome and tasteful gifts. The bride was a general social favorite among the circle in Big Sandy having lived here all her life, and will be greatly missed.

The groom was formerly a prominent young business man of this city, but has been located for the past year or so at Wichita Falls. He was also born and raised in this vicinity, his parents having been among the early settlers in this part of the state. He was very popular and well-liked and is a young man of the highest character. Since leaving Big Sandy, he has been connected with the W.B. McClurken Company at Wichita Falls, but more recently has been connected with the Wichita State Bank at that place.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on the evening train for Dallas. They were attended to the station by a large concourse of friends who bade them good bye with the usual accompaniment of rice, old shoes and various decorations attached to their trunks.

They will spend a few days in Dallas visiting the state fair, and afterwards go to Tuttle, Okla., for a short stay with the bride's sister, Mrs. H.E. Speer. They will be at home in Wichita Falls after October 23rd.

The Times extends congratulations and best wishes and in accordance with its usual custom, will follow them to their new home with a year's complimentary subscription. - Big Sandy Times.

Mr. Prothro and his bride arrived here. Tuesday evening of this week, and are at home at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Bundy, 1200 8th street.

COMES FROM ENGLAND TO BE A TEXAS BRIDE

All the way from Bournemouth, England to this country to become a bride, is the romantic experience of Miss Christina Sutherland, who will be wedded to Andrew McKenzie this afternoon.

Mr. McKenzie left England some time ago coming to Wichita Falls. In spite of the fact that some thousand miles of land and salt water lay between them, the promises made by the couple before McKenzie left England were kept, and several weeks ago Miss Sutherland left her home to become a Texas bride. If nothing goes amiss, the romance will have its culmination this afternoon, when the wedding is scheduled to take place.
