O'Donohoe – Richardson

One of the prettiest weddings ever performed in Electra took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.N. Richardson, June 29, when the beautiful and accomplished daughter, Miss Norma A. Richardson was given in marriage to Mr. Joseph O'Donohoe, one of Electra's popular and progressive young men.

The ceremony was most impressive, being performed by the Rev. T.E. Cannon, of the First M.E. Church.

The wedding march was played by Miss Julia Struvie of Taylor, Texas and Miss Lena Struvie rendered a beautiful vocal solo, "Oh Promise Me."

The bride centered upon the arm of her father and the groom was assisted by his brother, John, who was his best man. Pink and white streamers were hung from all sides of the room, forming a canopy under which the happy couple stood while the ceremony was being performed.

The bride made a most beautiful appearance, being dressed in Brussels net over white satin, a filmy white veil and lovely Cream La Frances roses. The beautiful costume and flush on the cheeks of the bride made a dazzling picture of beauty. The groom made a handsome appearance. His upright bearing and firm answers made a fine impression.
